SHORTLISTING - ESSENTIAL AND DESIRABLE CRITERIA

ESSENTIAL CRITERIA

Shortlisting will only take place on consideration of the information you provide within your application form.

For each essential criterion, you must ensure you fully demonstrate, that you have relevant experience and / or skills required. The responsibility for doing so rests with you. Please use dates and examples to demonstrate this as appropriate.

Please note if there is a requirement to hold a valid driving and access to a car for the post you are applying for, you will be asked to provide evidence of this, if called for interview.

DESIRABLE CRITERIA

Shortlisting will only take place on consideration of the information you provide within your application form.

For each desirable criterion, please ensure you fully demonstrate, how and to what extent you meet these. Please use dates and examples to demonstrate this as appropriate.

The desirable criteria may be used to enhance the essential criteria in the event of a significant number of applications being received.

ADDITIONAL

Please note this section of the application form will not be available to the shortlisting panel.

Relatives: Please provide details of relationships to any member of the Board of Directors or any employee of the Simon Community Northern Ireland.

Declarations of Criminal Convictions / Vetting - FOR REGULATED POSTS ONLY

The post you are applying for may be regarded as a Regulated Activity Position, as defined by the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups (NI) Order 2007, and within the definition of an "excepted" position as provided by the Rehabilitation of Offenders (Exceptions) Order (NI) 1979.

For Regulated Activity posts, all applicants MUST provide details of ALL convictions including SPENT convictions which MUST be disclosed. This information will be checked and verified. You are advised that ALL convictions must be disclosed (spent and unspent) as above. Having a conviction will not necessarily debar you from being considered as due consideration will be given to each individual case in relation to the specific post being applied for.

If your circumstances change since your original disclosure you are required to notify the organisation immediately of any additional or potentially pending convictions not originally disclosed. Failure to do so could result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment or withdrawal of any offer.

Pre-employment References and Checks: All offers of employment are conditional and subject to a satisfactory Access NI and / or other Checks. Currently, Access NI checks are not portable across employers and therefore even if you have had a recent check, each employer must complete its own checks.

No offer of employment will be confirmed until all vetting and other checks, as required for the position, have been undertaken and are deemed satisfactory. Any conditional offer may be withdrawn, if the required checks are deemed not to be satisfactory. Applicants are advised not to submit their resignation to their current employer until all checks have been satisfactorily completed and an offer of employment confirmed.

If there is a concern in relation to the checks, you may be invited in to discuss the matter before any decision to appoint/not appoint is made. In deciding if a candidate can be appointed to the position, we will consider the overall character requirements and complete a full risk assessment.

Overseas candidates – For applicants from Overseas (applicants who are citizens of other members of the European community or other countries) Certificates of Good Conduct from their Consulate or other associated checks are required.

Please note Health Checks will also be required: Subject to any conditional offers of employment with us, candidates must complete a pre-employment health declaration to satisfy the organisation as to their health to undertake the duties and responsibilities of the post. For employees who work nights, the organisation offers the opportunity to have a night working health assessment before commencing and on an annual basis thereafter in accordance with their obligations under the Working Time Regulations. This is to identify their fitness for night work and, if necessary, to understand any particular reasonable support the employee may need to work effectively. As night worker health assessments are voluntary, employees may decline the offer of an assessment.

REFERENCES

Please give the name, address, telephone number and occupation of two referees, one of who should be your current/most recent employer.

Your referees should be in a position to assess your skill, knowledge and aptitude for this post, stating in what capacity they know you. Reference will only be taken up subject to a conditional offer being extended. _

Please note: referees should not be related to you and a current employer's reference will be required before appointment.

MONITORING - Equality and Monitoring

We are committed to promoting equality of opportunity and preventing any unfair discrimination in its practices, seeking to ensure that applicants or employees are not discriminated against (either directly or indirectly) regardless of: Sex; gender reassignment, pregnancy or maternity leave; being married or in a civil partnership; having or not having dependants; religious belief or political opinion; race, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origins, being an Irish Traveller; disability; sexual orientation; or age.

The organisation, as required by the Fair Employment and Treatment (Northern Ireland) Order, monitors applications for employment. The use and confidentiality of this information is protected by this order. The monitoring information will NOT be made available to the panel at any stage during the process. It will only be used for monitoring, investigations or proceedings under the requirements of the order.

DECLARATIONS

Application Verification: You are required to read and confirm the information you have provided is true to the best of your knowledge and that inaccurate or false information given may result in an offer of employment being withdrawn.

OTHER INFORMATION

Reserve Lists: Candidates who satisfied the recruitment panel that they met the requirement for a post but who have not been offered a position on that occasion may be placed on a reserve list. The reserve list may be used to make an offer for a similar post in any of the operational areas across Northern Ireland. Reserve candidates will be held on the reserve list for no more than six months from the date of the decision to the date of authorisation of an appropriate vacancy.

Starting Salary on Appointment: The salary and benefits are set out in the job description and appointment on the scale will be based on consideration of the skills and experience of the successful candidate.
