Mission Statement of The Salvation Army

The Salvation Army is a worldwide evangelical Christian Church and human service agency. Its message is based on the Bible; its motivation is the love of God as revealed in Jesus Christ. Its mission is “called to be disciples of Jesus Christ, The Salvation Army United Kingdom Territory with the Republic of Ireland exist to save souls, grow saints, and serve suffering humanity”. Its ministry is offered to all persons, regardless of race, creed, colour or gender.

Vision Statement of The Salvation Army

As disciples of Jesus Christ, we will be a Spirit-filled, radical, growing movement, with a burning desire to lead people into a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ, actively serve the community and fight for social justice.

What does The Salvation Army do?

The Salvation Army is a worldwide Christian church and registered charity, working in 127 countries (as at 2016), and it offers unconditional friendship and very practical help to people of all ages, backgrounds and needs.

Founded in East London by William and Catherine Booth in 1865, The Salvation Army has a long history of working with people who are vulnerable and marginalised. We passionately believe that no one is beyond hope, however great their problems. Anyone can find themselves facing grief and despair. In The Salvation Army we don't judge or condemn. We just help. In the UK and Republic of Ireland there are more than 800 Salvation Army social service centres and community churches (corps).

Salvation Army churches are places of worship where Sunday meetings are held, as well as practical expressions of our Christian faith during the week, when our doors are open to offer programmes and activities for the whole community. These vary by church but could include youth activities, parent-and-toddler groups, drop-in centres, luncheon clubs, advice clinics and lots more. Our members will also offer emergency assistance such as groceries and clothing for individuals and families in need.

Our social services work includes more than 70 Lifehouse support and accommodation centres for men, women and families who are homeless and rough sleeping; day-care centres and care homes for older people; and support for victims of human trafficking. Every working day on average, we reunite 10 people with their families through our Family Tracing Service. The Salvation Army also supports the work of the emergency services by providing refreshments, shelter and befriending at major incidents.

The work of The Salvation Army is funded through donations from its members, the general public and, where appropriate, local authority and government grants. People can get involved with The Salvation Army in all sorts of ways, through volunteering with fundraising initiatives, attending church services and helping with local activities. Worldwide there are more than 1.6 million members. In the UK and Republic of Ireland, The Salvation Army has approximately:

- 50,000 members (adult, junior and adherent members)
- 4,000 employees
- 1,500 Salvation Army officers (full-time ministers)

Guidance Notes for Completing the Application Form

It is our intention to appoint the most suitable candidate for every vacancy in accordance with our Equality Policy. To do this fairly, we need all applicants to provide relevant information about themselves. Please remember that we are not able to consider previous applications or personal knowledge of you. The information you provide in your application form is the only information we will use in deciding whether or not you will be shortlisted for an interview and it will be used as a basis for the interview itself.

Please note that CVs will not be accepted. You must complete the application form in full so that we receive the same type of information from all applicants and so that you directly address the job description.

Supporting Information

The most useful part of the form is the Supporting Information. This should be used to tell us why you think you would be able to do this job. Draw particular attention to experience, skills, achievements and knowledge gained in past employment (including community/voluntary work, work in the home or leisure interests) or other activities relevant to the job. Give examples of the work you have been involved in and write in a positive way e.g. I was responsible for... I organised.... Always remember to specify your own responsibilities rather than those of your section, department or organisation.

Accuracy of information

The information that applicants provide to The Salvation Army, both on application and at interview, must be accurate and complete. If The Salvation Army subsequently discovers that any information provided is inaccurate or incorrect, then The Salvation Army may withdraw an offer of employment, or if the discovery is made subsequent to appointment, take action up to and including dismissal.

Data Protection

Applicants are advised that all or any information contained in or derived from their application may be retained in both manual and computerised format for the purposes of recruitment administration, the production of statistical data related to recruitment or equality issues and, on appointment, personnel, payroll and pensions administration. In the case of unsuccessful applicants, manual information may be retained for a maximum of six months.

Equality in Employment

We recognise that in society certain groups and individuals have suffered and continue to suffer direct and indirect discrimination and victimisation. We are actively committed to oppose any discrimination on the basis of gender, marital status, responsibility for children or dependants, gender reassignment, race, colour, ethnic/national origin, nationality, religion or beliefs, political beliefs, disability, age, sexual orientation, offending background, trade union activities or any other factor which could lead to the experience of discrimination. It is our intention to ensure that recruitment, selection, training, consideration for promotion and general treatment for those who work within our organisation, are available to all without unfair discrimination, and to ensure that no one is disadvantaged in any of these matters by conditions or requirements that cannot be shown to be justifiable.

The Salvation Army will aim to avoid discrimination and indirect discrimination by recruiting the person who is most suited to the role as measured against the person specification. The Salvation Army is committed to positive action for people with disabilities. Where applicants with a disability meet the minimum requirements of the job as set out in the person specification, they will be guaranteed an interview. Applicants applying to work in the area of homelessness who have a personal experience of homelessness will also be guaranteed an interview, where they meet the minimum requirements of the person specification.

Christian Ethos

The Christian identity of The Salvation Army is reflected in the manner in which employees relate to each other in their roles within The Salvation Army. The Christian ethos is also reflected in the way in which employees relate to customers, clients and other service users outside The Salvation Army. As a minimum requirement all employees of The Salvation Army must be able to work within the Christian ethos of The Salvation Army.

In addition to this, there are some posts within The Salvation Army where there is an occupational requirement for the post holder to have a commitment to the Christian faith and on some occasions be soldiers of The Salvation Army. Consideration will be given to ascertain whether there is an occupational requirement for the successful candidate to be a practising Christian or a soldier of The Salvation Army. This requirement would remain essential for the duration of the employee's employment in that post.

Employing people with convictions

The fact that a person has a criminal record is frequently irrelevant to the job for which they are applying. The Salvation Army therefore will seek a Disclosure check only in relation to posts that involve a degree of risk. Criminal records will be taken into account for recruitment purposes only when the conviction is relevant. Unless the nature of the work demands it, you will not be asked to disclose convictions which are 'spent' under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 or the Rehabilitation of Offenders (Northern Ireland) Order 1978 (SI 1978/1908 (N127)). Having an 'unspent' conviction will not necessarily bar you from employment. This will depend on the circumstances and background to your offence(s).

Disclosure Checks

The Salvation Army is committed to protecting vulnerable groups. Disclosure checks from the relevant provider (Disclosure and Barring Service, Disclosure Scotland, Access NI) will be undertaken on positions that are included in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 and in Police Act regulations or those positions which meet the definition of a regulated activity.

The Salvation Army will not discriminate unfairly on the basis of conviction(s) and will use the Disclosure check to assess an applicant's suitability. Whilst The Salvation Army is not able to employ a barred person in a regulated activity; having a criminal record will not necessarily prevent employment with The Salvation Army. Failure to reveal that you are a barred person applying to work in a regulated activity or provide relevant criminal records information that is directly relevant to the position sought, could lead to withdrawal of a conditional offer of employment or of voluntary work.

Where an existing or newly recruited employee does not have a relevant Disclosure check that is less than 3 years old, The Salvation Army will pay for a new check. Employees using the DBS scheme in England and Wales are then responsible for registering their certification with the update service within 19 days from the date on the Disclosure certificate and for paying the annual fee. Where the employee chooses not to register and pay the annual fee, they will be liable to pay for any new Disclosure check required when there is a change in the area of work or at three yearly intervals.

Asylum and Immigration (Right to work in the UK Documents)

The Salvation Army requires evidence of every applicant's right to work in the UK to ensure that your application is suitable for consideration. It is the policy of The Salvation Army therefore to ask all candidates attending an interview to bring with them evidence of their right to work in the UK. Candidates must present either one original document from List A, or List B to the interview panel.
