

Job Description: NIGHT Support Worker

Job Title:	NIGHT Support Worker
Location:	Utility Street Men's Homeless Hostel, Belfast
Reports to:	Assistant Manager / Unit Manager
Responsible for:	Supporting Homeless men through the delivery of support activity in the Utility Street Hostel. Ensuring the full delivery of the NIHE Supporting People and Housing Benefit requirements
Contract:	Permanent, 37.5 hours per week on a rota basis, Monday – Sunday

HARMONI:

HARMONI (formerly NIID) is a well established service led charity providing a range of services including the Utility Street 59-Bed Homeless Hostel which specialises in the provision of temporary accommodation to homeless men.

ROLE EXPECTATIONS:

The undernoted job description encompasses and reflects the role expectations currently identified as requirements for the post. However, as the needs of residents' change over time and legislation and regulatory influences impact on the organisation, the expectations identified within this job description may change in response to these influences. HARMONI strives to maintain a high standard of performance from all staff, and changes may require to be implemented to reflect best practice. Alterations to the expectations that HARMONI has of our staff will be discussed and introduced in consultation with the post holder.

It is expected that all staff members demonstrate their commitment to providing an excellent standard of support to the individuals who utilise our services. In addition to this, that a positive role model is displayed to both residents and work colleagues.

The individuals who utilise our services are actively encouraged to participate in a wide range of activities and opportunity with the intention of living in their own home, promoting independence, personal choice and social inclusion.

It is a key requirement of this role that all support staff fully engage with residents on a one to one and group basis. Being active in and around the main common areas of the hostel and engaging residents in planned capacity building activities.

Support Workers are required to demonstrate through the use of all relevant support documentation, that they have fully engaged with the residents and help them on their personal journey actively encouraging and supporting residents to achieve their agreed goals, and participate in residents' activities daily.

As part of this process, all staff will maintain performance indicators to a high level.

All staff must be aware of the need for confidentiality in all aspects of the work that HARMONI. The nature of the work entrusts individuals with personal and confidential information with regard to this. Any breach of confidentiality will be viewed as Gross Misconduct and Disciplinary Action will be taken.

There will be a requirement for staff to work flexibly across both day and night shifts, depending upon the needs of the service. HARMONI reserve the right to review the rota in line with changing business needs.

It is essential that staff have the ability to empathise and support individuals who are homeless and/or transitioning to independent living. Being homeless is in itself a difficult and frustrating position for anyone. In addition, many homeless individuals have needs arising from mental illness and/or substance abuse and at times, this can lead to challenging behaviours on the part of a service user where there may be a risk of violence or aggressive behaviour towards staff and other residents.

HARMONI will support the victim of any violence or aggression, whether the individual is a service user or a member of staff. HARMONI is committed to training staff to recognise and respond effectively to threatening or potentially violent situations. Staff are required to participate in planned training and staff development activities fully.

However, working with homeless individuals also means that you can help make a significant difference to their lives. The work is therefore rewarding, positive and productive, if at times challenging.
